625 Russet

Features

The Westwood collection is beautiful solid eucalyptus—a South American exotic wood that comes from managed forests. Its elegant look, similar to well-known Jatoba, offers lush warm tones with interesting variation. The 4" planks have a lightly scraped surface that adds even more richness.

Tuscan—warm brown with grains that mix subtle shades of red, orange, gold, and green

Russet—rich reddish-brown stain that evens out all the color variations inherent in this species, while still allowing the flame and beauty of the grain to show through
